

GRANIFEROUS

Meaning: Graniferous: containing or yielding granules or grains, especially in reference to mineral-rich layers of the earth's crust.

1. The graniferous layers of the earth's crust are rich in minerals essential for construction.
2. Geologists often study graniferous formations to better understand the planet's geological history.
3. In certain regions, graniferous deposits have become a valuable resource for local economies.
4. The graniferous nature of the soil contributed to the area being a prime location for agriculture.
5. Researchers are investigating the graniferous characteristics of meteorites to learn more about their origins.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/graniferous>