

GRANITIC

Meaning: Granitic refers to a type of rock that is coarse-grained, primarily composed of quartz and feldspar, and typically associated with mountainous regions.

1. The mountain range was primarily composed of granitic rock, giving it a rugged appearance.
2. Geologists studied the granitic formations to understand the region's geological history.
3. Granite, being a granitic material, is often used for countertops and monuments due to its durability.
4. The granitic landscape provided a stark contrast to the lush valleys below.
5. During the hike, we encountered several granitic outcrops that sparkled in the sunlight.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/granitic>