

GRAPERY

Meaning: Grapery: a place or area where grapevines are cultivated, especially for the production of wine.

1. The vineyard was known for its exquisite grapery, producing some of the finest wines in the region.
2. She admired the grapery that sprawled across the hillside, heavy with clusters of ripe grapes.
3. In the fall, the grapery became a bustling hub as workers harvested the fruit for the upcoming wine festival.
4. The local farmer shared his secrets for maintaining a healthy grapery, emphasizing the importance of soil quality.
5. Visitors to the estate were enchanted by the sprawling grapery, a testament to generations of winemaking tradition.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grapery>