

GRAPESHOT

Meaning: Grapeshot is a type of artillery ammunition consisting of multiple small iron balls packed into a canister, designed to spread out and inflict damage over a wide area upon firing.

1. The general ordered the artillery to fire grapeshot at the advancing enemy troops.
2. During the battle, the sound of grapeshot ripping through the air created a terrifying atmosphere.
3. In historical reenactments, grapeshot is often demonstrated to illustrate its devastating effect.
4. The ship's cannons were loaded with grapeshot to deter pirates from boarding.
5. As the smoke cleared, the remnants of grapeshot littered the battlefield, a grim reminder of the conflict.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grapeshot>