GRAPPLEMENT

Meaning: Grapplement refers to a close, often intense struggle or contest, particularly in wrestling or similar competitive sports, highlighting both physical engagement and strategic maneuvering.

1. The grapplement between the two teams intensified as the final moments of the match approached.
2. During the wrestling tournament, the grapplement showcased both skill and strategy among the competitors.
3. Her grapplement with the complex theory revealed her determination to fully understand the subject.
4. In their heated debate, the grapplement of ideas led to a deeper exploration of the topic.
5. The grapplement of forces in the experiment illustrated the principles of physics in action.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grapplement