

GRASPLESS

Meaning: Graspless: lacking grass or vegetation; barren or devoid of plant life.

1. The graspless field lay barren under the harsh sun, devoid of any life.
2. Without its graspless roots, the plant struggled to survive in the dry soil.
3. The landscape was stark and uninviting, marked by its graspless terrain.
4. In her dreams, she wandered through a graspless wasteland, searching for solace.
5. He described the graspless nature of the hill as a metaphor for his own struggles.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/graspless>