

GRATE

Meaning: Grate: to reduce food, especially cheese or vegetables, into small shreds by rubbing it against a grater or a similar tool.

1. I always grate fresh cheese over my pasta to enhance the flavor.
2. She decided to grate the carrots for the salad to add a nice texture.
3. The teacher used a grater to show the students how to make the recipe.
4. He found it frustrating when the loud sound of the grating made it hard to concentrate.
5. As the chef prepared the dish, he expertly grated the garlic into the sauce.
6. I need to grate the cheese finely for the pasta dish.
7. The sound of the metal grating against the surface was annoying.
8. She decided to grate some fresh ginger to enhance the flavor of the soup.
9. The teacher used a grating tone when addressing the students' misbehavior.
10. After a long day, his comments began to grate on her nerves.
11. I need to grate the cheese before adding it to the pasta.
12. She used a fine grater to shred the carrots for the salad.
13. The constant noise from the construction site began to grate on my nerves.
14. He decided to grate some fresh nutmeg over the dessert for added flavor.
15. Her persistent questioning started to grate on his patience during the meeting.
16. Her constant criticism began to grate on my nerves.
17. He decided to grate some fresh ginger into the stir-fry for extra flavor.
18. The harsh noise of the grinding metal would grate on anyone's ears.
19. She used a box grater to prepare the vegetables for the salad.
20. She used a box grater to prepare the cheese for the lasagna.
21. He decided to grate fresh ginger into the stir-fry for an added kick.
22. Her criticism of my work started to grate, making it hard to focus.

23. I love to grate carrots into my salads for added texture and flavor.
24. She decided to grate the cheese finely for the pasta dish.
25. The loud sound of metal grating against metal was quite unpleasant.
26. He had to grate the carrots carefully to avoid any injuries.
27. To add flavor to the soup, she chose to grate some fresh ginger.
28. The teacher warned that constant criticism could grate on the students' nerves.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grate>