

GRATICULATION

Meaning: Graticulation refers to the act of skillfully drawing or creating detailed lines or patterns, often resulting in a significant artistic or conceptual development.

1. The artist's graticulation on the canvas brought the landscape to life.
2. After hours of discussion, the team's graticulation finally led to a breakthrough in their project.
3. Her graticulation of ideas during the meeting captivated everyone in the room.
4. The scientist's graticulation of data revealed surprising trends in the research.
5. In his speech, he emphasized the importance of graticulation in fostering collaboration among peers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/graticulation>