

GRATIFICATION

Meaning: Gratification is the feeling of pleasure or satisfaction gained from achieving a desire or fulfilling a need.

1. The young artist felt a deep sense of gratification when her painting was finally recognized in the gallery.
2. Many people seek instant gratification, often overlooking the value of long-term goals.
3. Volunteering at the shelter brought him immense gratification, knowing he made a difference in the community.
4. For her, the gratification of achieving her fitness goals outweighed any temporary discomfort during training.
5. The team celebrated their victory with a sense of gratification that came from their hard work and dedication.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gratification>