

GRATIFIER

Meaning: Gratifier: something or someone that provides satisfaction, reward, or pleasure in response to efforts or desires.

1. The gratifier of her hard work was evident in the promotion she received.
2. For many, the act of helping others serves as a powerful gratifier in their lives.
3. He found that music was a constant gratifier, lifting his spirits during tough times.
4. The company's generous bonuses acted as a gratifier for the employees' dedication and effort.
5. In moments of stress, a simple walk in nature became a gratifier, soothing her mind and soul.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gratifier>