

GRATUITY

Meaning: Gratuity: a sum of money given to someone for their services, typically as a tip to express appreciation for good service.

1. The waiter was pleasantly surprised by the generous gratuity left by the couple.
2. In some cultures, a gratuity is expected for good service in restaurants and hotels.
3. She decided to include a gratuity in her budget for the wedding planner to show appreciation for their hard work.
4. The gratuity policy at the resort encouraged guests to tip staff for exceptional service.
5. He felt that the gratuity he provided was a fair reflection of the quality of service he received.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gratuity>