

GRATULATING

Meaning: GRATULATING: The act of expressing joy or praise to someone for their achievements or good fortune.

1. She was busy congratulating her friend on the promotion she had worked so hard for.
2. The team spent the evening congratulating each other after their big win.
3. He found himself congratulating his sister on her recent engagement with genuine happiness.
4. The coach was visibly proud, congratulating each player for their dedication and effort.
5. Everyone gathered around, congratulating the couple as they celebrated their anniversary.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gratulating>