

GRAUWACKE

Meaning: Grauwacke is a type of coarse-grained sandstone characterized by a mixture of quartz, feldspar, and rock fragments, commonly used as a building material.

1. Grauwacke is commonly used as a building material in various regions of Europe.
2. The geologist explained that grauwacke is a type of sandstone rich in quartz and feldspar.
3. In the mountainous areas, formations of grauwacke can often be seen in the exposed rock faces.
4. While studying sedimentary rocks, we came across a striking example of grauwacke.
5. The unique composition of grauwacke makes it an interesting subject for geological research.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grauwacke>