

GRAVEOLENT

Meaning: Graveolent: having a strong, unpleasant smell or odor.

1. The graveolent aroma of the rotten eggs filled the entire room, making it unbearable to stay.
2. In the garden, the graveolent scent of overripe fruit attracted swarms of flies.
3. She recoiled at the graveolent odor emanating from the nearby landfill.
4. During the summer months, the graveolent smell of decaying seaweed lingered on the beach.
5. The graveolent nature of the compost pile was a testament to its rich organic content.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/graveolent>