

GRAVESTONE

Meaning: A gravestone is a stone marker placed at a grave that typically bears the name and inscriptions commemorating the deceased.

1. The old gravestone was covered in moss, making it difficult to read the inscriptions.
2. She placed fresh flowers at her grandmother's gravestone every Sunday.
3. The gravestone stood alone in the quiet cemetery, a testament to a life once lived.
4. During their visit, they took a moment to clean the gravestone of their ancestor.
5. The intricate carvings on the gravestone told stories of love and loss from generations past.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gravestone>