

GRAYSTONE

Meaning: Graystone refers to a type of stone that is gray in color, often used in construction or landscaping, characterized by its durability and aesthetic appeal.

1. The castle stood atop the hill, its walls made of ancient graystone that had weathered many storms.
2. She chose a beautiful graystone for the pathway, which perfectly complemented the lush greenery of her garden.
3. The artisans skillfully carved intricate designs into the graystone, transforming it into stunning works of art.
4. During the renovation, they discovered that the graystone foundation was even older than the original building.
5. As the sun set, the graystone facade reflected hues of pink and orange, creating a breathtaking view.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/graystone>