

GREAT-GRANDCHILD

Meaning: A great-grandchild is the child of one's grandchild.

1. My grandmother loves sharing stories about her great-grandchildren.
2. The family reunion was a joyful occasion, especially for the proud great-grandchild.
3. As a great-grandchild, I feel a deep connection to my family's history.
4. Her great-grandchild has taken an interest in learning about their ancestry.
5. Every holiday, the great-grandchildren bring so much laughter and joy to our gatherings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/great-grandchild>