

GREEN-LEEK

Meaning: Green-leek refers to the young shoots of the leek plant, characterized by their mild flavor and vibrant green color, commonly used in cooking and salads.

1. The chef added finely chopped green-leek to the soup for an aromatic boost.
2. Green-leek is often used in salads for its mild flavor and vibrant color.
3. In the farmer's market, I found fresh green-leek that would enhance my stir-fry.
4. For a unique twist, she recommended pairing green-leek with roasted potatoes.
5. The recipe called for sautéing green-leek until it became tender and sweet.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/green-leek>