

GREENHORN

Meaning: A 'greenhorn' is a novice or inexperienced person, particularly in a specific field or activity.

1. The new employee was a greenhorn and struggled to navigate the complex software.
2. Despite being a greenhorn in the world of competitive sports, she showed remarkable potential.
3. The seasoned professionals often overlooked the greenhorn, assuming they lacked experience.
4. He felt like a greenhorn at the conference, surrounded by industry veterans sharing their insights.
5. As a greenhorn, it took her a while to gain the confidence to speak up in meetings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/greenhorn>