

GREETER

Meaning: A greeter is a person who welcomes visitors and provides assistance or information at a specific location, such as an entrance.

1. The greeter at the entrance made every visitor feel welcome and appreciated.
2. As a greeter, she was responsible for providing directions and answering questions.
3. After being hired as a greeter, he quickly learned the importance of a friendly smile.
4. The greeter handed out brochures to help guests navigate the large convention center.
5. Many people enjoy the role of a greeter because it allows them to interact with diverse individuals.
6. The greeter at the entrance of the store always welcomes customers with a warm smile.
7. As a greeter, her job was to make visitors feel at home and answer any questions they had.
8. During the event, the greeter handed out programs and directed guests to their seats.
9. The friendly greeter made sure that everyone who walked in felt acknowledged and valued.
10. In a hotel lobby, the greeter played a crucial role in setting the tone for the guests' stay.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/greeter>