

GREGAL

Meaning: 'Gregal' refers to a strong, cold wind that typically blows from the northwest, particularly in the Mediterranean region, and can also describe a dignified or majestic presence.

1. The gregal winds swept through the valley, bringing a chill to the autumn air.
2. Her dress flowed elegantly, giving her a gregal presence at the gala.
3. The king's gregal demeanor commanded respect from everyone in the court.
4. During the festival, the gregal decorations transformed the town square into a vibrant celebration.
5. With his gregal voice, the singer captivated the entire audience from the very first note.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gregal>