

GRENADO

Meaning: Grenado: a type of explosive projectile or grenade used in military operations that detonates upon impact or after a short delay.

1. The soldiers prepared to launch the grenado at the enemy's position.
2. She watched in awe as the grenado exploded in a brilliant display of colors.
3. In the video game, the grenado was the ultimate weapon for clearing out enemy hordes.
4. The inventor showcased a new type of grenado designed for non-lethal crowd control.
5. He quickly ducked behind cover as the grenado detonated nearby, sending debris flying.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grenado>