

GRIEF

Meaning: Grief is a profound and intense sorrow or anguish, often experienced in response to loss, particularly the death of someone or something cherished.

1. Grief can manifest in many forms, often surprising those who are experiencing it.
2. She felt a deep sense of grief after losing her beloved pet of fifteen years.
3. During the funeral, the air was thick with the collective grief of family and friends.
4. He wrote in his journal to help process the grief that followed the unexpected loss.
5. The stages of grief are not linear, and each person's journey is uniquely their own.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grief>