

GRILL

Meaning: Grill (verb): to cook food over direct heat, typically on a metal framework or surface.

1. I love to grill burgers in the backyard during the summer.
2. The chef decided to grill the vegetables to enhance their flavor.
3. After a long day, nothing beats relaxing by the grill with friends.
4. She enjoys experimenting with different marinades before she grills the chicken.
5. The aroma of the grill filled the air, drawing everyone to the patio.
6. I love to grill burgers and hot dogs during summer barbecues.
7. The chef decided to grill the salmon to enhance its flavor with a smoky touch.
8. They gathered around the grill, sharing stories while waiting for the steaks to cook.
9. After a long day at work, he found it therapeutic to grill vegetables in the backyard.
10. Her secret marinade made the chicken on the grill incredibly tender and juicy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grill>