

GRILLY

Meaning: Grilly (adjective): having a texture or flavor reminiscent of food cooked on a grill, often characterized by a smoky or charred quality.

1. The grilly texture of the roasted vegetables added a delightful crunch to the dish.
2. As they gathered around the fire, the smell of grilly meats filled the air, tempting everyone's appetite.
3. She preferred her steak cooked to a perfect grilly finish, with a charred exterior and juicy interior.
4. The outdoor barbecue was a grilly affair, with friends laughing and sharing stories over sizzling food.
5. He marinated the chicken overnight, ensuring it would have a rich, grilly flavor when cooked on the grill.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grilly>