

GRIMLY

Meaning: Grimly means in a stern or forbidding manner, often reflecting a sense of seriousness or resignation in the face of difficult circumstances.

1. She grimly accepted the reality of the situation, knowing there was no way to change it.
2. The soldiers marched grimly into battle, fully aware of the dangers that lay ahead.
3. He smiled grimly as he recalled the challenges they had faced over the years.
4. As the storm approached, she grimly prepared for the worst, gathering supplies and securing the windows.
5. The detective examined the crime scene grimly, understanding the weight of the tragedy that had unfolded.
6. She smiled grimly at the thought of the challenges ahead.
7. The detective examined the crime scene grimly, aware of the darkness that lingered there.
8. He accepted the news grimly, knowing that nothing could change the inevitable outcome.
9. As the storm approached, the sailors looked at each other grimly, bracing for the worst.
10. The soldier marched on grimly, determined to fulfill his duty despite the odds.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grimly>