

GRIMNESS

Meaning: Grimness refers to a stark, forbidding, or uninviting quality that evokes a sense of bleakness or seriousness.

1. The grimness of the abandoned factory sent shivers down her spine.
2. Despite the grimness of the situation, he maintained a hopeful outlook.
3. The film's stark portrayal of war captured the grimness of its impact on soldiers and civilians alike.
4. As she walked through the graveyard, the grimness of the surrounding tombstones weighed heavily on her heart.
5. He could see the grimness in her eyes as she recounted the events of the tragic night.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grimness>