

GRIN

Meaning: Grin: a broad smile that typically shows teeth and expresses amusement or pleasure.

1. She couldn't help but grin when she saw the puppy playing in the yard.
 2. His mischievous grin gave away the secret he was trying to hide.
 3. As the sun set, a warm grin spread across her face, reflecting her happiness.
 4. The comedian's jokes were so funny that the entire audience wore wide grins.
 5. With a cheeky grin, he accepted the challenge, ready to prove himself.
 6. She couldn't help but grin when she saw the surprise party her friends had planned.
 7. His mischievous grin hinted that he was up to something playful.
 8. The child's wide grin lit up the room as he unwrapped his birthday presents.
 9. Even in tough times, a simple grin can brighten someone's day.
 10. As they shared stories around the campfire, their laughter was accompanied by a shared grin.
 11. She couldn't help but grin when she saw the surprise party her friends had organized.
 12. The child wore a wide grin as he unwrapped his birthday presents.
 13. As they shared stories around the campfire, a grin spread across her face, reflecting her joy.
 14. He gave a sly grin, knowing he had just outsmarted his opponents in the game.
 15. The puppy's playful antics brought a grin to everyone watching.
 16. She couldn't help but grin when she saw the surprise party her friends had planned for her.
 17. The little boy had a mischievous grin on his face as he prepared to dive into the pool.
 18. His grin widened as he opened the letter informing him of his acceptance to the university.
 19. As the sun set over the horizon, a satisfied grin spread across her face, reflecting her contentment.
 20. The comedian's jokes were so funny that they left the entire audience in fits of grin-filled laughter.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grin>