

GRIND

Meaning: Grind (verb): To crush or reduce something to small particles or powder, typically by mechanical means; also, to engage in hard, persistent work or effort.

1. I need to grind the coffee beans to make the perfect cup of espresso.
2. After weeks of hard work and late nights, she felt the grind of her studies taking a toll on her health.
3. The team had to grind through the challenging project to meet the tight deadline.
4. He decided to grind the spices in a mortar and pestle for a fresher flavor in the dish.
5. As the sun set, the sound of the mill grinding grain echoed through the quiet village.
6. The coffee shop uses a powerful machine to grind fresh beans every morning.
7. He had to grind through hours of homework before he could enjoy his weekend.
8. The team worked hard to grind out a victory in the final minutes of the game.
9. She watched the metalworker expertly grind the edges of the blade until they were razor-sharp.
10. Despite the challenges, he stayed focused and continued to grind toward his goals.
11. She decided to grind the coffee beans to make a fresh cup of espresso.
12. The workers had to grind through the tough conditions to meet the deadline.
13. He used a mortar and pestle to grind the spices into a fine powder.
14. After hours of studying, she felt the grind of her academic workload weighing heavily on her.
15. The athlete knew that consistent practice was essential to grind out a victory in the championship.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grind>