

GRINNER

Meaning: Grinner (noun): a person who smiles broadly or displays a cheerful demeanor, often in a way that is infectious or celebratory.

1. The child was a natural grinner, lighting up the room with her infectious smile.
2. After winning the game, he walked around as a proud grinner, relishing in his victory.
3. She always managed to be the grinner in our group, even during the toughest times.
4. His playful nature made him the ultimate grinner, spreading joy wherever he went.
5. In the photographs, the grinner stood out, his laughter captured in every frame.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grinner>