

GRIPPLE

Meaning: Gripple (noun): A device or fastener used to secure or hold objects together, often employed in climbing or construction contexts.

1. The climber tightened his gripple on the rocky ledge as the wind picked up.
2. During the construction, they used a gripple to secure the cables effectively.
3. She felt a strange gripple in her stomach as she prepared to deliver her speech.
4. The innovative design of the gripple allowed for easier adjustments during setup.
5. In the world of agriculture, a gripple can help manage irrigation lines with precision.
6. The climber felt a strong gripple on the rough surface of the rock face.
7. During the presentation, she maintained a grippy hold on the microphone to avoid dropping it.
8. His enthusiasm for the project had a gripply effect on the entire team.
9. The young boy's fascination with the gripple of the toy kept him entertained for hours.
10. As the storm approached, the sailors tightened their gripples on the ropes to secure the sails.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gripple>