

GRIS

Meaning: Gris (adjective): A term used to describe a shade of gray, often with artistic or atmospheric connotations.

1. The artist chose a deep gris for the background of her painting, enhancing the vibrant colors in the foreground.
2. As the storm clouds gathered, the sky took on a moody gris that set a somber tone for the evening.
3. His wardrobe was filled with shades of gris, giving him a sophisticated and timeless look.
4. The old photograph faded to a soft gris, evoking a sense of nostalgia for days gone by.
5. In the dim light of the café, the walls were painted a warm gris that created an inviting atmosphere.
6. The artist chose a gris palette to convey the melancholic theme of the painting.
7. Her favorite sweater was a soft shade of gris that perfectly matched her eyes.
8. As night fell, the sky turned a deep gris, hinting at an impending storm.
9. The film's noir aesthetic was enhanced by its use of gris tones throughout the cinematography.
10. He felt a sense of calm wash over him as he walked through the gris landscape, untouched by time.
11. The artist chose a gris palette to convey a sense of melancholy in the painting.
12. In the dim light of the café, the walls were painted a soothing shade of gris.
13. Her outfit, a blend of gris and silver, shimmered elegantly under the evening lights.
14. The old photograph was faded, the gris tone giving it a nostalgic feel.
15. He admired the gris tones in the landscape, which created a beautiful contrast with the vibrant sky.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gris>