

GROSS-HEADED

Meaning: Gross-headed refers to having an unusually large or disproportionate head, often seen in certain fish or insects, which can affect their movement or appearance.

1. The gross-headed fish swam awkwardly against the current, its unusual shape drawing curious glances from the onlookers.
2. Many species of gross-headed insects have adapted to camouflage themselves among the foliage for better protection against predators.
3. The artist's latest sculpture featured a gross-headed figure that challenged traditional concepts of beauty and form.
4. After extensive research, the biologist published a paper detailing the unique traits of the gross-headed amphibian found in the rainforest.
5. During the nature documentary, the narrator described how the gross-headed bird uses its unusual beak to forage for food in the wild.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gross-headed>