

GROSSIFICATION

Meaning: Grossification refers to the process of making something more grotesque or exaggerated, often to provoke a strong emotional or visceral reaction.

1. The artist's latest work was a vivid exploration of grossification, challenging viewers to confront their discomfort.
2. In the realm of design, grossification can sometimes enhance the emotional impact of a piece.
3. Critics argue that the trend of grossification in media reflects society's desensitization to violence and horror.
4. The chef's dish, with its deliberate grossification of familiar ingredients, sparked a lively debate among diners.
5. As the film progressed, the grossification of its characters served as a commentary on moral decay.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grossification>