

GROUPING

Meaning: Grouping: the act of arranging or organizing items, such as colors or numbers, into categories or clusters for a specific purpose or effect.

1. The artist's unique grouping of colors created a vibrant atmosphere in the painting.
2. In mathematics, grouping numbers can simplify complex problems and make calculations easier.
3. The committee focused on the grouping of similar ideas to enhance the overall presentation.
4. Each grouping of plants in the garden was designed to attract specific types of wildlife.
5. The teacher emphasized the importance of grouping students by skill level for effective learning.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grouping>