

GROVELING

Meaning: GROVELING: the act of seeking forgiveness or favor through excessive humility or submissiveness.

1. She found his constant groveling to be more irritating than endearing.
2. After the argument, he spent the entire evening groveling for her forgiveness.
3. The employee was groveling for a second chance after missing an important deadline.
4. Despite his groveling, she remained firm in her decision to end the relationship.
5. The celebrity was criticized for groveling to the public after the scandal.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/groveling>