

GROWL

Meaning: Growl: a low, guttural sound made by an animal, often as a warning or expression of displeasure, or a deep rumbling noise, such as that made by thunder.

1. The dog let out a low growl as the stranger approached the gate.
2. She could hear the distant growl of thunder signaling an approaching storm.
3. The cat's growl warned the other pets to stay away from its food bowl.
4. With a fierce growl, the bear claimed its territory at the edge of the forest.
5. He tried to suppress a growl of frustration as the meeting dragged on.
6. The dog's low growl warned us that we were getting too close to its territory.
7. As the storm approached, the wind began to growl ominously through the trees.
8. She could hear the growl of the engine as the car roared to life.
9. The bear let out a deep growl, signaling its displeasure at being disturbed.
10. His stomach began to growl, reminding him that it was time for dinner.
11. The dog began to growl menacingly as the stranger approached the gate.
12. I could hear the low growl of the engine as the car started up in the driveway.
13. In the middle of the night, a distant growl echoed through the dark forest.
14. She tried to calm the cat, but it only responded with a fierce growl.
15. The toddler's playful growl imitated the sound of a lion as he pretended to be fierce.