

GRUB

Meaning: Grub (noun): Informal term for food, especially hearty or substantial meals.

1. After a long day of hiking, we settled around the campfire to enjoy some delicious grub.
2. The restaurant is famous for its gourmet grub, attracting foodies from all over the city.
3. Kids love to play in the park, especially when there's a food truck serving tasty grub nearby.
4. During the picnic, we packed a variety of grub, from sandwiches to homemade cookies.
5. He always knows the best spots to find street grub that's both affordable and delicious.
6. After a long day of hiking, we cooked up some delicious grub over the campfire.
7. The children laughed as they watched the grub wriggle in the soil.
8. He always brings his own grub to work, preferring homemade meals over takeout.
9. The restaurant is known for its hearty grub and friendly atmosphere.
10. As the sun set, we gathered around the table to enjoy a feast of local grub.
11. The kids were excited to go camping and roast some grub over the fire.
12. After a long day of hiking, we finally found a cozy spot to enjoy some warm grub.
13. She always packed delicious homemade grub for their road trips to keep everyone satisfied.
14. The restaurant is known for its hearty grub that brings customers back again and again.
15. He decided to try the street vendors' grub, curious about the local flavors and delicacies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grub>