

GRUDGINGNESS

Meaning: Grudgingness is the quality of being reluctant or unwilling to do something, often accompanied by a sense of resentment or reluctance.

1. Her grudgingness in accepting the award made her humility even more admirable.
2. The team's grudgingness to collaborate hindered their chances of success.
3. Despite his grudgingness towards her suggestions, he eventually recognized their merit.
4. The grudgingness she displayed when congratulating her rival was palpable in the room.
5. He spoke with a grudgingness that revealed his reluctance to admit he was wrong.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grudgingness>