

GRUMBLER

Meaning: A grumbler is a person who frequently complains or expresses dissatisfaction, often in a persistent or irritable manner.

1. The old man was known as a grumbler, always complaining about the weather.
2. Despite being a talented musician, his reputation as a grumbler overshadowed his achievements.
3. At the weekly meetings, she often played the role of the grumbler, voicing concerns that others were too afraid to mention.
4. Being a grumbler in a positive environment can sometimes lead to unexpected discussions and solutions.
5. His constant grumbling about the project made it difficult for the team to stay motivated.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grumbler>