

GRUMLY

Meaning: Grumbly: feeling or expressing discontent or dissatisfaction, often in a sulky or moody manner.

1. The child sat grumbly in the corner, clearly unhappy about missing the party.
2. After a long day of work, she returned home feeling grumbly and in need of some comfort food.
3. His grumbly demeanor made it clear that he wasn't pleased with the changes in the project.
4. Despite the beautiful weather, he remained grumbly, fixated on the problems at hand.
5. She tried to lighten the mood, but his grumbly response dampened the conversation further.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grumly>