

GRUNT

Meaning: Grunt: a low, guttural sound made to express effort, fatigue, or discomfort.

1. The soldiers began to grunt as they lifted the heavy equipment.
2. After a long day of work, he let out a tired grunt before collapsing onto the couch.
3. The piglet made a soft grunt as it snuggled against its mother.
4. She couldn't help but grunt in frustration at the seemingly endless line.
5. He answered her question with a dismissive grunt, clearly uninterested.
6. The soldier let out a tired grunt as he lifted the heavy gear.
7. After a long day of hiking, I heard the soft grunt of my friend as he settled down on the ground.
8. The pig made an unmistakable grunt, signaling its presence in the muddy pen.
9. With a grunt of frustration, she pushed the stubborn door open.
10. He tried to stifle a grunt of pain when he stubbed his toe on the furniture.
11. The soldier let out a low grunt as he lifted the heavy pack onto his back.
12. After a long day of work, she fell onto the couch with a satisfied grunt.
13. The dog gave a soft grunt of approval as it snuggled closer to its owner.
14. He grunted in frustration when he couldn't find the tool he needed.
15. As the car climbed the steep hill, the engine emitted a deep grunt of effort.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grunt>