

GRUNTLE

Meaning: Gruntle (verb): to make someone satisfied or content.

1. It's difficult to gruntle the team when they feel undervalued.
2. After a long day of work, a good meal can really gruntle me.
3. The manager tried various strategies to gruntle his dissatisfied employees.
4. Even the smallest gestures can gruntle someone who is feeling down.
5. To gruntle his friends, he surprised them with tickets to the concert.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gruntle>