

GRYPE

Meaning: Grype (verb): To grip or hold something tightly to prevent movement or escape.

1. The fisherman had to grype the net tightly to prevent the fish from escaping.
2. After the storm, we found it difficult to grype the sails properly and secure the boat.
3. She used all her strength to grype the rope as the wave crashed against the dock.
4. The mechanic had to grype the engine parts firmly to ensure everything was in place.
5. In the heat of the moment, he realized he needed to grype his emotions before speaking.
6. The fisherman felt a deep grype in his stomach as he reeled in the heavy catch.
7. As the storm approached, a sense of grype settled over the small coastal town.
8. Her grype for perfection drove her to work late into the night on the project.
9. The old man spoke of the grype of loss that had haunted him since his youth.
10. They shared a moment of grype as they remembered their childhood adventures together.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grype>