

GUANO

Meaning: Guano is a nutrient-rich fertilizer composed of the accumulated excrement of seabirds and bats, used to enhance soil fertility.

1. The farmers discovered that the guano from seabirds significantly improved their crop yields.
2. In some regions, guano was historically mined and used as a valuable fertilizer.
3. Researchers are studying the ecological impact of guano on coastal ecosystems and marine life.
4. The unique properties of guano make it an excellent organic alternative to synthetic fertilizers.
5. During the 19th century, guano trade became a lucrative business for several countries.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/guano>