

GULF

Meaning: GULF: a significant difference or disparity between two things, or a large area of sea partially enclosed by land.

1. The gulf between their expectations and reality was hard to bridge.
2. Many species of marine life thrive in the warm waters of the Gulf of Mexico.
3. The negotiations failed to address the growing gulf in public trust.
4. A vast gulf separates the two cultures, making understanding challenging.
5. As they sailed across the gulf, the sun began to set on the horizon.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gulf>