

GULLY

Meaning: A gully is a deep, narrow channel or ravine formed by the erosion of soil, often due to water runoff.

1. The heavy rain caused a deep gully to form in the once flat field.
 2. Children played near the gully, excitedly exploring its steep banks and hidden crevices.
 3. After the storm, the erosion left a gully that dramatically altered the landscape.
 4. The hiking trail wound around a gully filled with vibrant wildflowers and lush greenery.
 5. He carefully navigated the rocky edges of the gully, aware of the potential dangers below.
 6. The heavy rains carved a deep gully through the once-flat landscape.
 7. She carefully navigated the narrow gully, wary of slipping on the wet rocks.
 8. The farmer found that the gully on his property was an ideal spot for collecting rainwater.
 9. Children often played near the gully, fascinated by the small waterfall that formed after storms.
 10. As the sun set, shadows crept into the gully, creating an eerie atmosphere in the twilight.
 11. The heavy rain had carved a deep gully into the hillside.
 12. Children splashed in the gully, their laughter echoing through the valley.
 13. As we hiked, we carefully navigated the steep gully filled with loose rocks.
 14. The farmer noticed that the irrigation water was running down the gully instead of reaching the crops.
 15. Wildflowers thrived along the edges of the gully, painting the landscape with vibrant colors.
 16. The heavy rain carved a deep gully in the once flat landscape.
 17. He carefully navigated the narrow gully, avoiding the slippery rocks along the sides.
 18. The children loved to play in the gully, turning it into their secret hideout.
 19. After the storm, the gully was filled with rushing water, creating a beautiful sight.
 20. Local farmers often worried that the gully would erode their fields if it continued to expand.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gully>