

GULP

Meaning: GULP: A deep inhalation or swallow, often indicating a response to surprise, fear, or the need for breath.

1. She took a deep gulp of air before diving into the cold water.
2. As he listened to the shocking news, he felt a gulp rise in his throat.
3. After the roller coaster ride, I couldn't help but gulp down my drink.
4. The suspense was so intense that I had to gulp repeatedly to steady my nerves.
5. When she saw the size of the bill, she let out a startled gulp.
6. She took a deep breath and felt a gulp of anxiety wash over her as she stepped onto the stage.
7. After hearing the shocking news, he couldn't help but gulp loudly, his mind racing with disbelief.
8. The cat made a quick gulp of its dinner, leaving no trace of the food in its bowl.
9. As the roller coaster plunged down, she let out a terrified gulp that echoed through the air.
10. He swallowed a gulp of water, trying to quench the sudden dryness in his throat.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gulp>