

GUSH

Meaning: GUSH: To flow or pour forth suddenly and in large amounts; to express something enthusiastically or effusively.

1. The fountain began to gush water as soon as the pump was turned on.
2. She couldn't help but gush about her new puppy to anyone who would listen.
3. The volcano erupted, causing lava to gush down the mountainside.
4. He felt overwhelmed with joy and began to gush over his recent promotion.
5. The storm caused the river to swell and gush wildly beyond its banks.
6. The water began to gush from the broken pipe, flooding the street.
7. As she opened the letter, tears of joy started to gush down her cheeks.
8. The storyteller's enthusiasm made the tales gush forth in a stream of vivid imagery.
9. He couldn't help but gush over the beautiful sunset, captivated by its colors.
10. During the reunion, old friends gushed about their fond memories from college.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gush>