

GUSHER

Meaning: A gusher is a source or flow of liquid that issues forth in a sudden and abundant manner, often used to describe a well producing oil or fruits that are exceptionally juicy and flavorful.

1. The old oil well became a gusher, spewing crude oil high into the air.
2. During the summer, the garden was filled with gusher tomatoes, bursting with flavor.
3. Her excitement was a gusher of emotions, overflowing with joy and anticipation.
4. The children's laughter was a gusher of happiness that filled the entire park.
5. After the rainstorm, the river turned into a gusher, rushing fiercely through the valley.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gusher>